➤ July 4th parade – Village Administrator Traci Sturgill said that she spoke with the county and we are allowed to have a July 4th parade. They just said to make sure the parade participants are lined up 6 feet apart. They also said to post on Facebook that citizens need to follow social distancing guidelines themselves, it will not be up to us to enforce. Mayor Dan Harmon said that a potential problem could be that the Sheridan marching band is under the impression that all parades are cancelled. Village Administrator Traci Sturgill asked if we would be able to get ahold of anyone at the High School to communicate with the band director. Mayor Dan Harmon said yes and the band did start practicing today. Village Administrator Traci Sturgill said that she will get in touch with the band. She also said that Somerset did cancel all of their 4th of July events, including the parade. Councilmember Lynne Snider asked what date the parade would be. Village Administrator asked if Saturday July 4 would work since Somerset would not be having their parade. All agreed on that date.

Village Administrator Traci Sturgill said that we need to choose a Grand Marshall for the parade. She suggested Gene and Bonnie Goldsberry. She said they drive the car for the Grand Marshall every year and they do a lot for the village. All members agreed Gene and Bonnie Goldsberry should be Grand Marshall.

Council Comments:

Councilmember Erica O'Neill thanked Village Administrator Traci Sturgill for getting tshirts for the Thornville pool lifeguards to wear in the parade.
Councilmember Daria Carr said that she has seen a lot of commentary from people about wanting to see flags or other patriotic memorabilia. Councilmember Erica O'Neill said the flags that are put out in the village for the parade are done by the American Legion. Village Administrator Traci Sturgill said that the American Legion puts them out for special occasions but she can ask them to leave them out.
Councilmember Erica O'Neill asked if we could use the money that was to be used for pool toys to purchase a hot dog machine for the pool. Village Administrator Traci Sturgill said that is something we can discuss in Committee meetings.
